I have read and meet the membership requirements as stated. I have enclosed a $50 check for annual dues made payable to: MONL of MHA Center for Education. ANNUAL DUES ARE PAYABLE EACH JANUARY 1.

The Missouri Organization of Nurse Leaders was established in 1979 to provide its members with educational and networking opportunities designed to encourage the advancement of effective leadership in nursing. Membership is open to all registered nurses in Missouri who are in leadership positions. MONL is a personal membership group of the Missouri Hospital Association and an affiliated local group of the American Organization of Nurse Executives. MONL was formerly known as Missouri Organization of Nurse Executives (MONE) and, prior to that, Missouri Association of Nursing Service Administrators (MANSA).

Our Vision is to...

- ◆ promote nursing leadership today, prepare nursing leaders for tomorrow.

Our Mission is to...

- ◆ representation on AONE's affiliated groups
- ◆ representation on various Missouri State boards and task forces
- ◆ strategic relationships with specialty organizations
- ◆ access to MONL website and membership Listserv
- ◆ statewide grassroots advocacy

Organization

The Board of Directors consists of statewide elected officers and district representatives. Our elected officers are President, President-Elect and Secretary. The MHA liaison serves as treasurer and an ex officio board member. District representatives are elected from each of the six MHA districts and one representative at-large.

Membership

Full Membership: RNs in a leadership position or aspiring to be leaders, graduate nursing faculty, retired nurse leaders, consultants, editors, and accrediting and licensing representatives who support the mission and goals of MONL.

Associate Membership: RNs enrolled in a relevant degree program and not otherwise eligible for membership. May attend meeting and programs but are not permitted to vote or hold office.

Honorary Membership: Full rights and privileges for life conferred on retired MONL members by the board of directors. Dues are waived for honorary members.

Dues: Membership dues are $50 per year for active and associate memberships.
